

SCCI Group Ltd acquire Airwave Europe Ltd, creating the UK's biggest systems integrator.

Harlow, Essex. December 1st 2017. SCCI Group Ltd, leaders in TV, media and security services is pleased to announce the acquisition of Airwave Europe Ltd.

Airwave is Europe's largest supplier, installer and integrator of hospitality technology and AV equipment. Servicing a portfolio of clients across the globe, Airwave have supplied and installed over 350,000 displays and networks into hotels, hospitals and commercial buildings.

Having shared clients and worked collaboratively on projects across the UK, the acquisition consolidates the key strengths of both businesses, creating a go to company for screen media, digital connectivity and network services.

"Airwave's integration into SCCI's installation network enables us jointly to offer a full complement of installation and maintenance services, capitalising on SCCI's extensive IP networking knowledge" said David Fogelman, SCCI Group Chief Executive.

"In turn, SCCI will incorporate Airwave's services into its portfolio and will offer all-inclusive technical solutions coupled with digital signage, hospitality media and AV technology."

"This is a truly exciting time for both companies" said Tim Worrall, Airwave Managing Director "by combining resources, knowledge and skillsets, we lead the industry in the provision of TV media and networking services."

"Both companies are passionate about providing industry-leading technical solutions" said Rob Wickings, Managing Director, SCCI Alphatrack "this common ethos provides a compelling offering to our customers and a foundation for sustained growth".

Airwave's acquisition creates, by some distance, the UK's largest systems integrator with over 500 people and a nationwide network of engineering resource.
